American Chemical Society- Scholars Program

The American Chemical Society sponsors a scholarship program designed to encourage Hispanic, African-American, and American Indian students to pursue undergraduate college degrees in the chemical sciences and chemical technology. The goal of the scholarship program is to aid in building an awareness of the value and rewards associated with careers in science and to assist students in for success in these areas. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit and financial need to high school seniors planning a science preparatory program of study, and college students who are currently freshmen, sophomores, or juniors who are committed to the study of chemistry, biochemistry, chemical engineering, or other chemically related fields such as environmental science, materials science, or toxicology and are interested in pursuing careers in one of these fields. Students interested in two-year chemical technology programs and careers in this field are also eligible. Students must have strong academic records and show an interest in, and potential for, careers in the chemical sciences. The amount of each individual award depends upon the availability of funding, the number of scholarships awarded, and evidence of financial need. Scholarships of up to $3,000 are awarded per year and are renewable.

Millennium Scholars

The goal of GMS is to promote academic excellence and to provide an opportunity for outstanding minority students with significant financial need to reach their highest potential by: (1) Reducing financial barriers for African-American, Hispanic American, American Indian/Alaska Native and Asian Pacific Islander American students with high academic and leadership promise who have a significant financial need. (2) Increasing the representation of these target groups in the disciplines of education, engineering, library science, mathematics, public health, and the sciences, where these groups are severely underrepresented. (3) Developing a diversified cadre of future leaders for America by facilitating successful completion of bachelors, masters and doctoral degrees. (4) Providing seamless support from undergraduate through doctoral programs, for students selected as Gates Scholars.

HP Scholars

A scholarship opportunity for students interested in computer engineering, computer science, or electrical engineering.

Program Description

The HP Scholar Award is a highly selective scholarship opportunity for students interested in CE, CS, or EE. The total value of the four-year cash scholarship, HP Scholar Productivity Package and the three paid internships may exceed $40,000 per student. Scholarship awards are $12,000 ($3000 per year for four years) and are intended to help defray educational expenses. Upon acceptance into the program, each HP Scholar receives a Productivity Package which includes an HP laptop, printer, and PDA. The most valuable part of the HP Scholar experience is the internship opportunity. HP Scholars may be eligible for assistance in obtaining three paid summer internships with HP at one of our US locations during the course of their undergraduate work.

The HP Scholar program offers scholarship opportunities to underrepresented minority (African American, Latino, or American Indian) students who will pursue a bachelor of science degree in computer science, computer engineering or electrical engineering at an HP Scholar partnership university (UCLA, University of Washington, San Jose State, Morgan State, or North Carolina A&T). High school seniors and community college transfer students that are preparing to attend one of the partnership universities are invited to apply for this scholarship prior to enrollment at the university.

Berdakin Family Latino/a Emerging Leader Scholarship

The Berdakin Family Foundation was started by Dr. Daniel Berdakin and his wife Susanna Berdakin to help enrich the lives of children through the support of educational programs and financial aid assistance for students. The Foundation was established in December 2005. It is registered in California as 501.3(C) and as such retains tax exempt status. Though the initial endowment consists entirely of monies donated by the Berdakin family, the family accepts charitable donations to add to its already sizeable endowments.

The Latino Emerging Leaders Scholarship is awarded to help provide one deserving Latino Freshman with the financial resources needed to attend Northwestern University. Eligible applicants should reflect active involvement in the Latino community, including community service activities and plan to continue his/her contribution to the Latino community in the future.

For more information, download the Berdakin Family Scholarship Application.

Deadline: December 18, 2006

Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute, Inc.

This premier scholarship opportunity is afforded to Latino students who have a history of performing public service-oriented activities in their communities and who plan to continue contributing in the future. There is no GPA or major requirement. Students with excellent leadership potential are encouraged to apply.

Recipients will receive

- Scholarships of $2,500 to attend a four-year or graduate-level academic institution; or Scholarships of $1,000 to attend a two-year community college.

CHCI will disburse scholarship monies directly to recipients. In a two-fold effort to monitor the progress of scholarship recipients and promote college retention, total scholarships monies will be equally divided and distributed on a semester/quarterly basis as long as recipients maintain good academic standing (for community college and four-year undergraduate students only; for graduate- and professional-level students, award will be given in one lump sum). Scholarship awards are to be used for tuition, room and board, textbooks, and other educational expenses associated with college enrollment.

Eligibility Criteria

1. History of consistent active participation in public service-oriented activities
2. Acceptance into an accredited community college, four-year university, or a graduate/professional program. Applicants must be enrolled as full-time students.
3. Demonstrated financial need
4. Good writing skills
5. U.S. citizenship or legal permanent residency

Gates Millennium Scholars

The Gates Millennium Scholars initiative, funded by a grant from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and administered by the United Negro College Fund and partners, is aimed at expanding access and opportunity to higher education to those citizens who will help reflect the diverse society in which we live. The Foundation seeks to increase the number of African-Americans, American Indians/Alaska Natives, Asian Pacific Americans, and Hispanic Americans enrolling in and completing undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has established this initiative to encourage and support students in completing college and in continuing on to earn masters and doctorate degrees in disciplines where ethnic and racial groups are currently underrepresented. The Gates Millennium Scholars awards will enable young Americans to attend undergraduate and graduate institutions of their choice and be prepared to assume important roles as leaders in their professions and in their communities.
